Say hello to our Neighborhoods

Downtown: With everything from performance venues, galleries, the legendary Widman's Candy store and shops galore, this area attracts numerous locals and visitors. There are also several restaurants, bars and breweries dotting DeMers Avenue, 3rd Street and our beautiful Greenway Trail System.

Eastside: Walk across Sorlie Bridge into East Grand Forks and experience that friendly hometown vibe at its finest. There you will discover a boardwalk, situated near the Red River, lined with popular homegrown eateries. Across the street is Cabela's World's Foremost Outfitter, as well as Riverwalk Centre, which is filled with a mixture of businesses and luxury movie theater.

Northside/UND: While here, cheer on our championship University of North Dakota Men's Hockey team at the magnificent Ralph Engelstad Arena. Browse through all the great works at the North Dakota Museum of Art. Then cap it off with a famously delicious Grinder sub at The Red Pepper.

Southside: Perhaps best known as the part of town where lots of popular big box stores, franchise restaurants and Columbia Mall reside, it has become a hot spot for locally owned boutiques and eateries, as well. This area also offers great places to tee it up, such as King's Walk Golf Course and wind down afterward, perhaps with glass of vino at Helix Wine & Bites.

WINE, SPIRITS and BREWS TWO WAYS

All's well that ends well with ale or wine, plus a vodka chaser, courtesy of three area brewpubs, two distilleries and one winery. Both Rhombus Guys Brewing Company and Half Brothers Brewing Company serve up superb suds and fabulous food out of trendy, laidback Downtown spaces. Grape Mill is a family-owned vineyard and winery preparing and pouring glassfuls of fine wine. Take a MiNny road trip to Hallock and sample more beers from Revelation Ale Works or some of the hard stuff at Far North Spirits. Who says you can't make vodka out of sugar beets? At Red Pine Distillery, located on Grand Forks' Northside, they do just that...rum, too! Drop by any of these places to sample for yourself and perhaps even take a guided tour. When it comes to one grand place that carries it all, locals will tell you a visit to the "big red barn" (also known as Happy Harry's Bottle Shop) is a must. If caffeine is your drug of choice, we gotcha covered there, too! With several coffeehouses scattered about, our Forks are percolating up some tasty brews. Four locally owned favorites are Archives, Bully Brew, Urban Stampede and the Early Morning Espresso kiosk.

All's well that ends well with ale or wine, plus a vodka chaser, courtesy of three area brewpubs, two distilleries and one winery. Both Rhombus Guys Brewing Company and Half Brothers Brewing Company serve up superb

Half Brothers Brewing Company:

At Half Brothers, producing superior suds and delicious dishes is a family affair. Together, siblings Chad and Taylor have created a 10-barrel production brewery, taproom and eatery located Downtown that specializes in locally inspired hand-crafted beers and food. A few noteworthy concoctions are the Grand Forks Classic Pale Ale, Morning Squeeze IPA and famously elusive Pink Fluffy Unicorns Dancing on Rainbows Fruited Sour Ale. Some of the signature menu offerings include a 13-ounce meatball with marinara, smoked chicken wings, Spicy Hawaiian pizza and a variety of hearty sandwiches served on fresh baked bread.

Rhombus Guys Brewing Company:

Located Downtown in the legendary Metropolitan Opera House, Rhombus Guys, along with one of the state's top brewmasters, really knows how to make iconic (blonde) ales. This 15-barrel brewhouse serves up its version of popular styles including ambers, IPAs, pales, sours and stouts. The kitchen also produces great eats like burgers, tacos, Scotch eggs and the tastiest fried Brussels sprouts this side of Belgium. Beer, in delicious dairy form, plays a starring role in several dishes: homemade pretzels with beer cheese dip, pulled pork and beer cheese smothered pub fries and a bacon beer cheese mac that's lip smacking good. If you're there on a Sunday, from 11 AM to 2 PM, give Rhombus' delish brunch dishes a try.

Urban Stampede Coffeehouse:

The Urban is a former fur bank turned saloon with tons of character. Check out the historic safe, tin ceiling, dark wood bar and intricate stone floor. Sip on freshly brewed coffee or tea while you peruse the World's Smallest Art Gallery and gift shop. Friendly baristas are always willing to whip up your favorite specialty drink or plate up a freshly baked bagel, muffin or scone. During summer months, take it outside to café tables situated in the heart of Downtown.

@sugarspiceandstylethatsnice

Bully Brew Coffee:

This Grand Forks original is the only place in town that actually roasts their own beans. Ranging from light to dark, top blends include Uff Da, Cowboy and Mocha Java. Enjoy a cup at any of three Greater Grand Forks locations or since they will bag it to-go, y'all can brew a pot at home anytime. Make sure to also try one of the scrumptious caramel rolls or scones made in-house daily.

Grape Mill Winery and Vineyard:

This Eastside vineyard, winery and tasting room offers you the chance to sample all the Halverson Family's great grape creations, with an option to purchase your favorites afterward. Tours are available by appointment. Please call for their seasonal schedule, which may also include live music and food truck fare.

Nightlife

When the lights go down in our cities, you will find an abundance of local haunts serving up good times in various venues and vessels. Are y'all a fan of country music, craft beer and games of chance? Perhaps a connoisseur of cool jazz, cabernet sauvignon and stimulating conversation? Or maybe you just want to party it up and get down on the dance floor? No matter, our awesome spots to relax, jive and imbibe will provide plenty of places to raise your spirits.

Things to do

Play at your pace with miles of trails and waterways. Lace up to run, ski, inline skate and bike as part of fun or competitive events. Area parks offer picnic and play areas, sledding hills, ice rinks and other seasonal flavors. When skies are gray, enjoy all of Forks' great indoor recreational spaces.

Everything under the sun

Around here, every day is a walk in the park. Lincoln Drive, University and Riverside offer paths lined with beautiful flowers, foliage and trees, while Sertoma boasts a picturesque Japanese Garden and great birdwatching opportunities. Strap on the inline skates or just use plain old sneakers to make your way through the 2,200-acre scenic Greenway Trail System. In colder months, we find ice skates, skis and snowshoes work best. Flowing waters or frozen solid, our two rivers provide opportunities for some of the best fishing, boating and snowmobiling around. Oar up with one stop at Boathouse on the Red! Open during summer months, this little blue shack gives you access to canoes, kayaks and SUPs.

Grand Rides is a bike sharing program, for use in the Greater Grand Forks Area, provided by the Downtown Development Association and the support of their community partners. The program is simple to use through the smartphone application Movatic, which can be downloaded from all major app stores. Rides start at $1/15 minutes and the program offers a variety of membership options including $5/mo and $60/yr for unlimited 30-minute rides. Learn more at downtownforks.com/grandrides.

A downtown public art walk

Article and Photography by // Alicia Underlee Nelson

If you love art and being outdoors, combine the two with a public art walk in downtown Grand Forks. You can take an art-focused stroll and enjoy the sunshine, or pop into the shops, galleries and restaurants to really make a day of it.

Grand Forks combines accessible public art (especially sculptures) with outdoor recreation in a way that seems organic and effortless. Start downtown at Town Square (3rd Street South and DeMers) to take a photo with one of The BIG Heads, perhaps the city's most photographed public sculptures. If you look closely, you'll see the city reflected in this sculpture's sunglasses.

To spot its companion, walk through the pocket park on the other side of 3rd Street. Some of the coolest sculptures in the state are tucked into this compact urban enclave, hidden in plain sight.

The sculptures begin along a pretty wall ivy and fill in the space between Sledsters and The Urban Stampede, a beloved local coffeeshop and longtime gathering place for creative types. They also flank the excellently named Kim Holmes Alley of Love, which honors a local chef. A few more pieces are set into, along and across from Sledster's exterior walls.

Head east on 4th Street to see the art spilling out onto the sidewalk outside Browning Arts and YOU ARE HERE. Sometimes you'll spot large and colorful paintings. On other days, you'll encounter sculptures or ultra-textured collages. No matter what you find, it's consistently eye-catching, so have a camera on hand.

From here, you'll see the second big blue head standing just across the road, outside the Grand Forks MTC at 4th Street and Kittson Avenue. There are panels featuring regional artists along the bus shelters to the east of the building as well.

If murals are more your thing, snap a picture of the one in the alley behind Brick & Barley Bar and Restaurant off 3rd Street. You'll have to stand much further back to take in the mural on the south wall of Rhombus Guys Brewing Company just down the road -- its small dots of color are designed to be viewed from a distance.

If you settle in at the amphitheater, you can snack or sip a coffee with a soothing view of the Red River and the Flood Memorial Monument. The obelisk illustrates just how high the waters rose during the historic flood of 1997. It's a sobering reminder of the challenges this neighborhood faced and how it's reinvented itself.

This sculpture is located along The Greenway, a 2,200-acre network of green space along the banks of the Red and the Red Lake Rivers in Grand Forks and East Grand Forks. That's more than twice as large as Central Park in Manhattan!

Commemorate your trip with a pic on the Sorlie Memorial bridge. When you walk across it, you're also crossing the North Dakota-Minnesota border. It's a fun and photogenic way to end your outdoor art walk.
